

How can honey help us to heal?

This project explains the value and importance of honey. Honey gives us a lot of health benefits from moisturizing your face to healing wounds. From this experience you will gain more knowledge and understanding of honey. An activity will be shown on how to make lip gloss and have the opportunity to try it on.