

How do bees see us?

You will learn about how bees see compared to humans, especially colors. We will tell you how bees see ultraviolet and how they don't like the colors black and red. We made a prototype so you can see ultraviolet with a black light in a dark box. This box changes the colors that bees can see. There will be music for you to enjoy and you can play a game and learn more about bees.