

How does the Human Ear Work?

Through much research on the life of Helen Keller, students have investigated the questions, "How does the human ear work?" and "How is the human eye like a pinhole camera?" Visitors will experience models of the ear and eye, a large scale pinhole camera, and will test out sound-absorbing materials. Other interactive activities include a sign language center and large word search.