

Human trafficking; Am I safe?

The purpose of this project is to spread awareness about human trafficking. There are different types of human trafficking and it impacts our city and the people around us. From this experience you will gain more knowledge on how to help stop human trafficking. A “Hope Chain” will be available in our booth and stories of victims will be played to share their experiences. Listen to their cries, Listen to their pain! Stop human trafficking!