

St. Johns Riverkeeper

The St. Johns Riverkeeper is an advocacy group that works for a healthy St. Johns River. Through our education programs, we seek to help students and their families make connections with their river and learn how they can protect it.

At our booth, we will be showing students some of the water testing equipment that researchers use to look water quality in the St. Johns River and why these water quality factors are so important to the health of the ecosystem.

www.stjohnsriverkeeper.org/