

What is DNA and how does it affect us?

DNA stands for deoxyribonucleic acid, and is known for being the molecule that makes us all different. Visitors will learn more about DNA and see a model of a DNA strand along with a puzzle. People can rearrange the pieces of the puzzle to create the correct pattern of a DNA strand while being informed about mutations occurring when a strand is missing or in the wrong place.