

How can we prevent HIV and AIDS?

Come visit our HIV booth during the Science Festival. The purpose of our group is to inform people about HIV and how to be safe. You may not know but there are about 700 people in Jacksonville with HIV. This booth explains the virus, how it is contracted, how it is spread and how to prevent the spread of the virus. This booth aims to create awareness about the virus.