

What has society changed robotics and how does robotics benefit us?

This booth will explore the topic of what is robotics. Visitors will gain a better understanding of how robotics has changed the way society does things. A U.V.G will be available for people to see how the robotics in this vehicle works. There will be different components needed to make a robot for the visitors to experiment and test.