

How can we grow in spite of cancers like bone and breast cancer?

Our booth will have two poster boards, one with information and the other will have pictures of breast and bone cancer. We will have cancer blood cells stands that you can look in with a microscope and a 3D model of what a cancer bone looks like and what a healthy bone looks like.